REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the claims are allowable over prior art of record, because none of the references in alone or in combination discloses a mobile communication device comprising a housing; a transceiver; a controller coupled to transceiver; a light generating source couple to the controller; and an optical transmission port coupled to the Eight generating source and coupled to the housing, the optical transmission port configured to optically and detachably couple a visibly perceptible light-emitting output device to the mobile communication device, as discloses in claims 1,12, and 24.

The underlined limitations are critically, since the mobile communication device is improves avoid excessive current drain and reduced battery life for operation of the mobile communication device.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
